

11 degree of Aquarius: 'A man tête-a-tête with his own inspiration'

This image is a reminder that it is mainly in solitude that the labour of creation can be accomplished. We can, of course, enjoy and profit being creative in a group situation, practicing the skills and learning the time honoured secrets of our chosen craft. It is when we return to ourselves though and to the silence of our own mind that true inspiration usually comes.

And when it does it seems to come from another, the Self within who knows things, who remembers all songs that were ever written, all lives that were ever lived.
